

Spring Break

2018

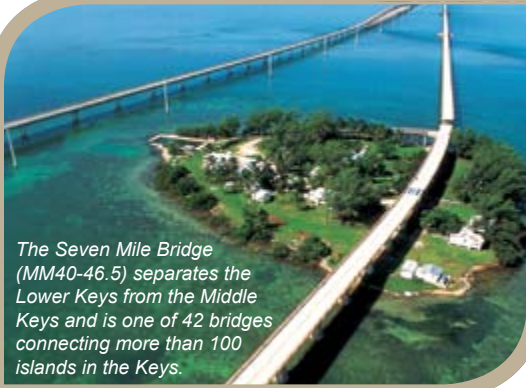

February 12-15

Marathon, Fla.
in the Middle Florida Keys

$221 USD/pp

Great Lakes Cruising Club

The Seven Mile Bridge (MM40-46.5) separates the Lower Keys from the Middle Keys and is one of 42 bridges connecting more than 100 islands in the Keys.

The Great Lakes Cruising Club's 2018 Spring Break will be in Marathon, Florida beginning February 12 and wrapping up on February 15. Our events within the 3 days will have you traveling up and down Highway #1 at a range of only 12.5 miles...from mile marker 59 to mile marker 46.5, with the hotel at mile marker 54. Convenient! Tentative scheduling includes visits to a "Turtle Hospital," and a Dolphin Research Center, a sunset sailing cruise, a visit to the Marathon Yacht Club, and free time to enjoy "island life." The Keys are a beautifully different, always sunny retreat, where the pace softens and Caribbean music abounds.

If you've been to the Keys before, you will know that they are surrounded by water. Our meals and social gatherings will be equally divided with views of either the Atlantic Ocean or the Gulf of Mexico. You can watch the sun rise and set in the water every day! It's very rewarding and worth the trip in and of itself! Also, dress is completely casual. Even the Marathon Yacht Club only expects a shirt with collar after 1800. That is the dressiest it will get! Sandals are welcome everywhere!
