

Border Rally

Port Huron, Mich. (D-1)
August 24-26, 2018

The 2018 Border Rally will be held at the River Street Marina in Port Huron, Mich., on August 24–26, hosted by Port Captains Dale and Teena Lashbrook. A fun weekend will be had by all. Both American and Canadian members are urged to attend. We have reserved 20 boat slips at the River Street Marina for the weekend. Friday night will begin with a meet-and-greet at the pavilion located in the marina, followed by dinner on your own at one of the many restaurants within walking distance of the marina. Saturday morning will begin with breakfast at the Marina pavilion. Saturday afternoon: on your own for lunch, participate in the scavenger hunt, visit the farmer’s market, art galleries, museums and many other attractions in downtown Port Huron. There will be a Corn Hole Tournament back at the marina starting at 1500. Saturday evening will include a buffet dinner at Rix’s Rooftop which has a beautiful view of the St. Clair River. Sunday morning there will be a continental breakfast at the pavilion. This may be your last opportunity to be on the water with GLCC members this 2018 boating season, so plan on attending.

Watch the Events page on the GLCC website for additional information and the registration form or online registration.
