WHAT'S NEW WITH THE GLCC

Why do Lake Superior folks have all the fun?

In May, Lake Superior is still a bit chilly, but that doesn't stop cruisers along the northernmost Great Lake from gathering to cheer on warm weather, good winds, light waves and clear skies.

Do you know which pets now need a microchip?

Make sure your furry friend doesn't get stuck at the border. The requirements for pet owners entering – or re-entering -- the US have changed. And what about Canada?

Know before you go!

It's just smart to check what a country requires of visitors. Refresh your memory on Canada's rules about food (human and pet), alcohol and cruising with a glass of wine in your hand.

Boat Insurance: Do you know what is and is not covered in your policy?

Are replacement electronics covered if your boat is hit by lightning? Different insurance companies cover different items, therefore not all policies are alike. Don't wait until something happens to review your insurance coverage and understand what is, or more importantly, what is not covered!

Past Commodore Doug Jackson and Vice Commodore Craig Shantz have worked with Lakeland Boating magazine to share content with GLCC members.

Great Lakes Foundation fixes docks, saves history

The Great Lakes Foundation has approved grants to help rebuild docks at a popular north shore Lake Superior marina, and to support a photo essay about the people who manually removed grain from freighters before mechanization. Your donation to the Foundation supports the betterment of the Great Lakes.

OUR CLUB SAILS INTO SUMMER:

As I type this from the cockpit of our sailboat, I'm excited for summer and for the warmer weather. The marina at Duncan Bay, MI, is filling up, and we are busy welcoming old friends back. The GLCC has a busy summer ahead, and Karen and I look forward to seeing you at one of our summer events, be that the Rendezvous in Little Current, ON, a lake-specific rally, or just if our paths cross at an anchorage somewhere along the way. Let me share a few other thoughts ...
